Dear Sir,

This is to inform you that we are sending a _____ under the AWB _____ to _____ without insurance.

We hereby state that we fully understand the liability clause of SpeedEx Worldwide Express, as stated in clause 6

Liability not assumed:

In case of a loss or damage to the contents of a courier package the Standard Trading Condition of SpeedEx Worldwide Express read as follows:

(a) SpeedEx, its Agents and servants shall not be liable for any loss, damage, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by the Consignor or any other person arising out of or in connection with this contract or the handling, storage or transport or other dealing with any consignment except where such loss, damage cost or expense shall arise as a direct result of any willful act of neglect or default by SpeedEx and then only to the extent of the lesser of:- USD 30 or The value of the consignment or The cost of reshipping it (at the Consignor's choice)

(b) SpeedEx, its Agents and servants, shall not be liable under any circumstances for any special or consequential damages or loss. Special or consequential damages or loss shall include (but not be limited to) commercial and financial loss, special reconstruction costs, substituted costs, loss of interest, profit, income, utility, market or business opportunity, whether or not SpeedEx, its Agents or servants had knowledge that such damages might be incurred. The Consignor in writing must make any claim to SpeedEx within 10 days of the date of claim arising. No claim will be considered until all transport charges have been paid.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,
